Update 10-22-15

Waiver for Release of Information: FERPA, The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. It does not allow Central Carolina Community College (CCCC) to communicate with anyone regarding a student without the student's express permission. In order to ensure student success, it is suggested that students participating in the Career and College Promise Program sign the below waiver. The waiver will grant CCCC the right to communicate with the high school and parents of the high school student participants regarding student progress, grades and attendance.

Media Release: I agree to the terms outlined in the media release agreement found at http://www.cccc.edu/high-school/ccp/files/CCP_MediaRelease.pdf.

Student Expectations: High school students taking college courses at Central Carolina Community College will abide by the Student Code of Conduct and all other CCCC Policies and Procedures.

Parent and Student Certification: I have read, understand, and agree to the above Release of Information and Student Expectations.
