Information for non-traditional schools:

- ❖ Pre-K at Broadway Elementary, Floyd Knight, W.B. Wicker and Warren Williams are currently working with North Carolina Pre-K to determine more specific guidelines. The plan for Pre-K will be announced soon.
- ❖ Alternative elementary at Warren Williams will attend daily.
- ❖ Floyd Knight, the Children's Center students will begin on a daily schedule for all students.
- ❖ Lee Early College will follow an alternating schedule that is currently being coordinated with Central Carolina Community College.
- ❖ Bragg Street Academy will follow a daily schedule for students in grades 6-10 and an alternating schedule for grades 11 and 12.

As a reminder, we have established the INSPIRED Virtual Academy for families who prefer to learn remotely. This new Lee County Schools K-12 academy offers an alternative for students who learn better online, families needing more flexibility in their schedules and anyone with concerns about in-person classes during the pandemic.
